

Program outcome, Program specific Outcome, Course Outcome

Program	Paper
B.A.	Hindi, Sanskrit, English(literature), Home Science, political Science, Physical Education, Psychology, Ancient Indian History, Education, Sociology
B.Sc.	Maths, Zoology, Botany, Chemistry
B.Com.	All compulsory paper

B.A.(Bachelor of Arts)

1. The students acquire knowledge in the field of social sciences, literature and humanities which make them sensitive and responsible citizens.
2. The program enables the graduates to appear in various competitive examinations and further they can choose the postgraduate programme of their choice.
3. the students to acquire knowledge with human values which assist them in dealing various problems in life with courage and humanity.
4. The program boosts self confidence among the learners.
5. Numerous career opportunities are available for the B.A. graduate i.e., teaching, civil services, typist, translator, writer and poet, anochar, journalist and many more.

B.Sc. (Bachelor of Science)

1. the Students become able to understand, define, explain and demonstrate the concepts of physics, chemistry botany and zoology.
2. The Students use the lab where they learn to determine the appropriate level of technology for experiments and mathematical and statistical techniques for solving problems.

3. Students learn how the things around us and they design models to demonstrate it. hence , the Students become able to communicate their scientific knowledge.
4. This programme enables the students to perform the jobs in numerous fields such as science, engineering, pharmaceutical industries, survey, teaching, banking, development-planning, business, public service, self business etc.

B. Com. (Bachelor of Commerce)

1. The students become able to understand the fundamentals, principles and concepts of accountancy and auditing.
2. The students learn about banking activities and banking operations.
3. The application of mathematical and statistical tools in commerce, economics and industry.
4. The students learn fundamentals of law relating to company and commercial activities. business laws, company laws and banking regulation act and income tax laws.
5. Students learns about business finance, business communication and marketing principles also
6. Students become able to understand indian economy, national and international trade and procedures and documentation in international trades.
7. Commerce graduate students can opt teaching, banking services, accountant, chartered accountants, company secretaries, civil services, entrepreneur etc. efficiently.

M.A (Master of Art)

1. The program enables students to know the area of research in their respective subjects. Students learn research methodology, various tools, and data collection methods.
2. Master degree enables students to be masters of their chosen subject.
3. Students become more confident in all aspects of their subject and can develop reasonable and more analytical approaches about the concepts.

4. The program enables students to opt for a career in the field of archeology, dietician, food preservation industry, tie and die work, social worker, economist, teaching and so on.

M.Sc.(Zoology) (Master of Science)

1. Students develop empathy and care for animals.
2. Students are able to apply the knowledge and understanding in their own life.
3. Students learn and develop skills and learn the interaction among the living organism, concept of genetics and role of genetics in human health.
4. Students acquire the knowledge of Agro based industries like sericulture, fish farming, butterfly farming, apiculture, mushroom, bees farming and vermicompost preparation etc.
5. Students learn the ability to integrate professional ethics in life, organisation, society and individuals to fulfill the needs of mankind in various aspects.