Duration

The programme shall be of duration of three academic years, that is, six semesters. However, the students shall be permitted to complete the programme requirements within a maximum of five years from the date of admission to the programme.

Courses of Programme

1. In Arts and Science there will be a combination of three subjects offered by a candidate as prescribed by University of Lucknow authorities. Subjects are divided into theory papers and practical papers (where required).
2. In Commerce the papers will be divided into three or more groups.

Semesters

An academic year is divided into two semesters. The Odd semester may be scheduled from July to December and Even semester from January to June.

Examinations

1. There shall be examinations at the end of each semester, for odd semesters in the month of December: for even semesters in the month of May / June. A candidate who does not pass the examination in any course(s) shall be permitted to appear in such failed course(s) in the subsequent examinations to be held in November /December or May / June.
2. A candidate should get enrolled /registered for the first semester examination. If enrolment / registration is not possible owing to shortage of attendance / rules prescribed OR belated joining OR on medical grounds, such candidates are not permitted to proceed to the next semester. Such candidates shall redo the semester in the subsequent term of that semester as a regular student; however, a student of first semester shall be admitted in the second semester, if he/she has successfully kept the term in first semester.

Evaluation

The performance of a student in each course is evaluated in terms of percentage of marks with a provision for conversion to grade point. Evaluation for each course shall be done by a continuous internal assessment (CIA) by the concerned course teacher as well as by end semester examination and will be consolidated at the end of course.

i. Internal Assessment – 20% weightage of a course

Project/Assignment - 10 marks

Presentation on given project/assignment - 05 marks

Attendance/activities - 05 marks

ii. End Semester Exam – 80% weightage of a course

Minimum Passing Standard

The minimum passing standard for External Examinations shall be 33%, i.e. 27 marks out of 80 marks and 33 out of 100 marks for theory as well as practical courses. The minimum passing standard for Aggregate in a semester end Examination shall be 36%.

Eligibility for Back Paper

1. Students of following categories shall be 'Eligible for Back Paper (EBP)'. An EBP candidate shall be promoted to next semester. The back paper facility in a semester provides promotion to the next semester and another opportunity to obtain a minimum of the pass marks assigned for an individual paper or in the aggregate.
 - A. The candidates who fail to secure an aggregate of 36% of the maximum marks for a semester but have obtained 33% of the maximum marks assigned to each of their papers (including practical/project/thesis/field work/viva- voce). Such a candidate categorized 'EBP-AGG', can appear in only one theory paper of his choice to secure a minimum in the aggregate.
 - B. The candidates who secure 30% of the maximum marks for a semester but fail to secure a minimum of 33% of the maximum marks in one out of four papers (theory or practical/project/thesis/field work/viva- voce) prescribed for the semester papers or in case where there are more than four papers prescribed for the semester , the candidates who have failed in two theory papers or have failed in one theory paper and one of the practical/project/thesis/field work/viva- voce papers shall be declared 'EBP'. Such candidates will appear only in their uncleared papers.
 - C. All the candidates covered in the categories defined in the sub sections A & B shall be given only one chance to clear the semester in the next back paper/ regular examination of that semester and not thereafter.
